

Hi Kitchener – Aldwyn Roberts
 They make you feel nice – in death ---
 They celebrated and honored your life and contributions ---
 Maestro lit a candle – humming ---
 And the procession halts ---
 As Flag Woman “Dally” explains the “mysticism” of carnival --- Whispering in your ears ---
 No rum, no wine, no woman, but water, air, and fire --- fuh so ---
 The elements ---
 A natural high – you dig ---
 Kitch laugh – and bump she rump ---
 Lord Shorty “I” – interrupted – and started praying ---
 John L. sang with melody chanting – the chorus.
 Kaiso (calypso) and pan in heaven.com.
 Kaiso (calypso) and pan in heaven.com.
 Lancelot lane on the controls...
 No moko jumbie – no stick fighting...
 No masquerading – no mask ---
 As the imageries are elucidated
 Eric Williams bouncing without hearing aid
 C.L.R. James chanting the chorus
 Kaiso and pan in heaven.com
 Papa Doc, Burnham, and Eric Gary sidelined scuffling.
 Gordon Grant (Zacks) and Tom Charles conducting the band
 Cheddie Jagan beating conga drums...
 Michael Manley playing tenor pan and
 Maurice Bishop and Rosy Douglas playing guitar pan --- with
 Walter Rodney on bass drum
 Kaiso and pan in heaven.com.
 The rivers flowing ---
 Waves beating on the rocks...
 And the wind gushing hard...
 With flames – burning – burning – the elements – the elements ---
 Kaiso and pan in heaven.com
 Hi Kitch – Aldwyn Roberts...